Dear Mrs./Mr.,

I'd like to personally congratulate you on winning the prize in the 8th Merck's Advance Biotech Grant Program.

This program, now is its sixth year, was developed to demonstrate our commitment to partnering with emerging biotech companies, like yours, to solve the toughest problems in life science.

AnTaimmu BioMed Co., Ltd., We selected your company, among many applications, because we believe in your molecule. We view specific antibodies as a very promising agent to combat immunotherapy of lung and liver cancer and see your approach to develop biologic drugs as novel and innovative.

As a winner of the the 8th Merck's Advance Biotech Grant Program, you will have the opportunity to collaborate with Merck's scientists and technology experts. We are excited to share our long history of process development expertise with you to progress your molecule. Congratulations on your success, and we look forward to this collaboration.

Sincerely,
